1. General

by substituting for the words "Parliamentary Secretary" wherever it appears the words "Assistant Minister".

2. Standing Order 27. (Contents of Question).

Add at the end of S.O. 27 (4) the following Proviso:-

"Provided that, if on any day more than twelve Questions are due to be placed on the Order Paper for reply, and if Mr. Speaker is of the opinion that the number of such Questions exceeding twelve cannot be spread over the next three sitting days without the Questions on one of these days exceeding twelve, then each Member shall be limited equally to such number of Question on the Order Paper as will reduce the total number of Questions to twelve and shall receive forthwith a written reply to all other Questions which are thus excluded from the Order Paper."

3. Standing Order 111. (Committal of Bill to Joint Committee).

Add to S.O. 111 the following sub-paragraph:-

" (3) If, at any time before any such Motion has been agreed to, a message is received from the Senate communicating a resolution that the Senate shall give yet further consideration to such amendments, that message shall be notified to the House by the Speaker at the earliest opportunity, and the Bill shall be returned to the Senate accordingly; whereafter procedure shall be as prescribed by Standing Orders 110 to 117 inclusive."

4. Standing Order 145. (Procedure on Supplementary Estimates).

That subparagraph (3) of Standing Order No. 145 be amended by deleting the words:-

"On any day on which an Order of the Day for Committee of Supply has been set down under this Standing Order, the Chairman shall one hour before the interruption of business".

and inserting in place thereof the following words:-

"On any day on which an Order of the Day for Committee of Supply has been set down under this Standing Order, the business of such order shall commence not later than three hours before the time for interruption of business and, unless the House otherwise orders that such business shall continue for more than one day, the Chairman shall, half an hour before the time for interruption of business,"
